INTERNATIONAL TRACING SERVICE

Catalogue of camps and prisons in Germany and the Occupied Countries 1939 - 1945.

In presenting this compendium of information the International Tracing Service is attempting to comply with repeated requests for a publication embodying all relevant data relating to concentration camps, camps of both conscripted and voluntary labourers, prisons and indeed all types of institutions in which foreigners were confined during the war years 1939 - 1945, in Germany and the occupied countries.

The International Tracing Service has no information on camps which were located in the satellite countries. Only those camps established in Germany and the occupied territories, and on which some form of evidence is available, have been listed. The original source of information quoted is given in brackets after each item, so that an evaluation of the evidence may be made by the reader. For example (Duergermeister), (Buchenwald strength Reports), indicate that the preceding statements were taken from a Duergermeister's report and Buchenwald records respectively.

While every effort has been made to ensure that the information given is as accurate and as complete as possible, and careful research has been carried out in original documents, and, in many cases, by field investigations, it is realised that these sources are not infallible. Therefore any suggestions, corrections and additional information which will enable the International Tracing Service to complete the documentation in succeeding issues and supplements, will be welcomed.

The present edition of the catalogue is not a final one. Research work and investigation are continuing, and much more information is expected from IIS field officers and from the National Tracing Bureaux. Supplementary issues will thus be made as soon as sufficient complementary data can be processed.

The International Tracing Service hopes that when the final supplement has been distributed, a complete survey of all camps and prisons will be in possession of all those to whom this type of information has become vitally important.

H. THUDICHUM
Director I.T.S.

Arolsen, 24th June 1949

DESCRIPTION OF CONTENTS.

The descriptive text, which forms the main body of the book, is not arranged alphabetically, but according to the sequence of the G.S. G.S. 1:250,000 map series pages, issued by the Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces, which were used for checking the geographical locations of all camps and prisons. For the benefit of those who may wish to check the locations on maps, the map reference is given. The Kreis or province is also mentioned. For ease of reference, an alphabetical index is given at the end of the book, listing camp names, type of camps, code names and code numbers, abbreviations and number of the page on which fuller information can be found. No information is given against the camp code names or numbers, these being cross referenced to the main locality.

Frontiers indicated are, of course, the post war boundaries. For example the former German territory east of the Oder/Neisse is regarded as Poland, however since in most cases a camp or prison will be more widely known under the former German name, both the old and the new name are usually given (e.g. Sonnenburg - Slonsk, Kreis Oststernberg, Germany, now Poland; Auschwitz - Oswiecim, Poland).

Each locality is dealt with in a separate paragraph; within each paragraph the type of camp or camps is indicated under one of the following main groups: -

1. Konzentrationslager ("Concentration Camp" e.g. Dachau, Buchenwald)

Under this heading are included all those camps which were under the jurisdiction of the Reichssicherheitshauptamt (RSHA); many of the ghettos (Theresienstadt and Kaunas for instance) which were controlled by RSHA are listed as concentration camps.

RSHA was the usual authority for ordering imprisonment in concentration camps, and all types of prisoners were committed: - political prisoners (politische Haeftlinge or Schutzhaeftlinge), NN prisoners (Nacht & Nebel), Jehovah's Witnesses (Bibelforscher), habitual criminals (Berufsverbrecher), asocial elements (Asoziale), homosexuals (Homosexuelle), Jews (Juden) and other categories.

In some cases civilian workers employed in the manufacturing of secret weapons were at one time, for security reasons, housed in some concentration camps. At first they were not treated as prisoners but were free to come and go in the camps. Towards the end of the war, however, no distinction was apparently made between these free workers and the prisoners, the former receiving the same treatment and conditions as the prisoners.

2. Sonderlager ("Special Camps")

This type of camp housed persons segregated for special treatment. For instance foreigners and Germans who refused to work for the Reich, or who worked badly, might have been sent to Hinzert. Sentences were usually short term.

3. Arbeitserziehungslager ("Workers Educational Camps")

Persons sentenced to serve a term in these camps were usually workers who had broken their contracts, whose labour records or production records were considered unsatisfactory, or persons released from prisons and concentration camps and considered in need of an "educational" course to fit them for industry. Terms were not supposed to exceed 8 weeks.

NOTE: - Conditions in Sonderlagern and Arbeitserziehungslagern were very somilar, and the death rate in both was high. There are indications that many prisoners served fairly long sentences although these camps were originally intended to hold short term prisoners.

4. Prisons.

In this group are included all penal institutions to which persons would have been committed by normal judicial courts. "People's courts" (Volksgerichtshof) or "Special courts" (Sondergericht). These are: -

Gefaengnisse, Strafgefaengnisse	- Prisons
Untersuchungsgefaengnisse	} - Remand prisons
Untersuchungshaftanstalten
Arrestanstalten	- Police prisons
Gerichtsgefaengnisse	- Prisons attached to judicial courts
Frauengefaengnisse	- Womens prisons
Zuchthaeuser	- Penitentiary or convict prisons
Jugendgefaengnisse	- Juvenile prisons

5. Sicherungslager ("Security Camps", e.g. Schirmeck - Vorbruck).

Persons under a "Sicherungsverwahrung" (security custody) order could be held in a "Sicherungslager" for several months while awaiting trial or investigation. After trial, these prisoners, if not cleared and released, could be transferred to prisons or concentration camps. (Correspondence between Sicherungspolizei and Sicherungslager Schirmeck). Sicherungsverwahrung might also be ordered on expiration of normal prison or conc. camp sentences (War C.C.)

6. Straflager and Strafgefangenenlager ("Penal or Punishment Camps)

These camps were under the jurisdiction of the penal administration. The regime was much more severe than in "Zuchthaeuser", and similar to that of the concentration camps (e.g., the Emsland group camps).

7. Arbeitslager ("Work Camps").

These were usually forced labour camps and were guarded, and the movement of the inmates was restricted.

8. Civilian Workers Camps (Gemeinschaftslager).

These were unguarded communities, usually of foreign workers.

9. Wohnlager (Housing Unit). also unguarded community.

10. Civilian Internment Camps (Internierungslager).

The "Kalender fuer Reichsjustizbeante", 1939 edition, has been the chief source of information relating to prisons and penal institutions in Germany. Very little is known so far about the prison work details which were sometimes housed in small camps near the place of employment; investigation is still proceeding, and the ITS will eventually list these also.

"Arbeitsaemter" in the Western Zones of Germany have provided fairly complete information on the various forced labour and voluntary workers camps.

For concentration camps the ITS has consulted original camp records, formerly held by the War Crimes Commission and has also received help from the National Tracing Bureaux and ex-political prisoners associations. In the case of Dachau, Buchenwald, Flossenbuerg, Mauthausen, Natzweiler and Neuengamme sufficient material is available. However, for Sachsenhausen-Oranienburg, Ravensbrueck, Gross Rosen, Auschwitz and other camps in the Eastern European countries and in the Soviet Zone of Germany, very little material has been obtained, and so far the ITS has had little opportunity of verifying the evidence at hand.

SYMBOLS AND ABBREVIATIONS USED IN THE CATALOGUE.

Symbols used for concentration camps and Kommandos, code names and abbreviations are explained as they occur in the text and in the index.

The source of information is given in an abbreviated form and is put in brackets after each item. For example (BNTB) indicates that Belgian National Tracing Bureau is the authority for the preceding statement.

MARBACH

O 49/V 08

see CC. Mauthausen

The main concentration camp MAUTHAUSEN was situated on the border of the two villages Mauthausen and Marbach, in the vicinity of the quarry Wiener Graben.

In the ITS records, the CC is first mentioned as existing in July 38. The treatment in Mauthausen and its Kdo's. was especially hard even as compared with other CC's (US War Crimes Comm.) The current number in the prisoners registration book reached 139000 in April 45. (International Red Cross Comm. Service Watson) . Prisoners arriving with the Code "Kugel" -bullet- marked on their transfer papers were executed soon after their arrival, without entering their names into prisoners register; if entered by mistake the names were crossed out and the numbers given to other prisoners. Thus an estimated number of 25000 pris. do not appear in the CC's registers or death books (Former inmate of the Mauthausen Schreibstube) As for the use of the prisoners for work in the armament industry. Mauthausen had to provide with manpower a territory covering, the former districts Wien, Niederdonau, Oberdonau, Steiermark, Kaernten of the "Ostmark" and the environments of Passau from Bavaria.

The following is the official list compiled by the Mauthausen Section of this Detachment of all camps, Kdo's and Sub-Kdo's of the Mauthausen Concentration Camp ring. The camp designated by capital letters alone (A, B, etc.) are all Kdo's of Mauthausen The designated by a capital letter and a number (A-1, D-1) are Sub-Kdo's of the Kdos. designated by the corresponding capital letter. Kdo's were usually in charge of an officer. A Sub-Kdo. usually was in the charge of a non-commissioned officer The lists are in numerical and alphabetical order.

Concentration Camp Natzweiler or Struthof.

First mentioned on 26.7.41 as the " newly established CC. Natzweiler of grade - Lagerstufe - II ", the address is "Kl. Natzweiler, Post Rothau i. Elsass, Tel. 49, Amt Schirmeck - Elsass." (Photocopies of Gestapo Files, Duesseldorf). This camp provided with slave labour Southwestern Germany including Alsace-Lorraine, Baden and Wuerttemberg except the parts adjacent to the Lake of Constance/Bodensee, and Southern Hessen up to Frankfurt/Main.

In Summer 1944, the evacuation of the camp was begun (French MIB.) and the move was completed on 22/23.11.44 when the administration moved to Binau/Neckar.

Here, on 24.1.45, the serial numbers of prisoners reached 44 600 (Natzweiler No. Book.)

In April 1945, all the prisoners of this CC were transferred to Dechau or its subsidiaries.

US Zone (enclave) L 54/W 79

The Bremen area contains two distinct groups of camps. One is in the Bremen town area from Osterholz, to Grambke, covering a strip of land 11 miles long and 4 miles broad, situated mainly on the right hand side of the Weser river. The farge area follows the right hand bank of the Weser river in a strip 2 miles broad and 7 miles long, starting from the towns Bremen-Vegesack & Bremen-Aumund, through Bremen-Blumenthal & Bremen-Farge down to Neuenkirchen, Schwanewede, lying $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles East of Neuenkirchen, belongs to this group.

The camps of the Bremen town area are listed below, whereas the Farge area has a different paragraph for each locality.

The camps of the Bremen town area are:

CC Kdos. of Neuengamme:

Schuetzenhof (Neuengamme death registers), working for the firm Deschimag (Vatican Mission report).
 in Riespot (Neuengamme death registers)

Concentration Camp Neuengamme, in Hamburg - Neuengamme, Hausdeich 60, reestablished as an independent CC on 4.6.40 (Photocopies of Gestapo files Duesseldorf). This CC had to provide with slave labor the armament factories of Northwestern Germany, North of Buchenwald territory.
Towards the end of April, the camp was evacuated, mostly towards Luebeck, where they were brought aboard the ships
"Cap Areona", "Thielbeck", "Athena" together with prisoners evacuated from other CC's, mainly Stutthof. A total of about 10000 prisoners were on board of the three ships, when an air attack on the 3.5.45 sank two of them, the "Cap Areona" and the "Thielbeck" (various reports of former CC inmates present at the catastrophe).

WALCHUM Kr. Aschendorf-Huemmling Brit. Zone K 53/V 68 situated 2½ miles SSE of Doerpen.

Work detail "Camp IV" of the Emsland group, established in 1936/37, capacity 900 - 1100 inmates (The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group), mentioned on 8.3.44 when being cleared of civilian prisoners, who were to be replaced by military offenders (personal file of former inmate). Prisoners were employed on road building round Varel airfield (Brit. War Crimes Group - Emsland Case).

The Emsland Group:

The Reichsministry of Justice had set up prison camps in the Emsland area as early as 1923. In 1934, Concentration camps were established in Boergermoor and Esterwegen; then, a large scale plan was worked out for the vutilization of the moors' around, and towards South of Papenburg. The whole system of camps was put under the administration of the Papenburg "Strafgefangenenlager", and in 1939 the existing or to be erected camps received numbers I - XV. Afterwards however, only the "Strafgefangenenlager", were administered by the Papenburg prison, the concentration camps under the CC Neuengamme administration, and the Pow camps came under the various "Stalags".

Camp No.:	Location:	Remarks:
I	Boergermoor	Strafgefangenenlager
II	Aschendorfer Moor	"
III	Bruul - Rhede	"
IV	Doerpen - Walchum	"
V	Neusustrum	"
VI	Oberlangen	PoW.
VII	Esterwegen	Strafgefangenenlager
VIII	Vesuwe	Non-Operational
IX	Veerssen	CC Kdo. of Neuengamme
X	Fuellen	Non-Operational since 1938
XI	Gross - Hesepe	CC Sub.-Kdo. of Veerssen
XII	Dalum	"
XIII	Wietmarschen	Non-operational
XIV	Bathorn	PoW.-camp
XV	Gross-Ringe, Alexis- dorf-camp	Non-operational

The history of each camp is described under the heading of the corresponding locality. In 1942, a Kdo. "Nord" was sent to Norway, and in 1943/44 a Kdo. "West" to France. (The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes).

Work details in Papenburg: a sub-Kdo. of "Camp II" Aschendorfer Moor, was working with the firm Hoeveler & Dieckhans. The other work Kdos. from "Camp I" were daily brought in by trucks to work in the main administration and with the firm Gebr. Meyer, shipbuilders, and the firm Seidenstricker.

On 10.7.40, a Sub-Kdo. of "Camp V", Neusustrum, of 15 men, was working in Papenburg (Neusustrum daily strength reports).

Prison: (BNTB)

The Administration of the project "Wueste" was situated here. There is a bituminous line area between Dautmergen, Erzingen, Frommern, Schoerzingen and Zepfenhan; in order to speed up crude oil production, a project "Wueste" was designed in 1943 under a certain Geilenberg, as the "Reichskommissar fuer dringliche Angelegenheiten" with the participation of the following organizations:

- DOBLE - Deutsche Oelschiefer Forschungsgesellschaft, for scientific research and planning;
- DBHG - Deutsche Bergwerk & Huettenbau AG, for industrial equipment;
- OT - Organisation Todt, as construction contractor and furnishing forced labour and civilian manpower.
- SS - furnishing CC manpower;

The first shipments of CC inmates arrived in Febr.44 in the area; in Aug.44, new shipments poured in, without preparations for proper lodging and feeding. Conditions, therefore, became particularly bad and a great percentage of the prisoners perished in the camps: Schoenberg, Schoerzingen, Dautmergen, Dormettingen, and Bisingen (Bulletin "Charnier de Schoenberg" by the "Section Francaise et des Recherches" of the French Supreme Command in Germany). Localities farther off from Buchenwald were served by so called "Aussenkommando's," i.e. work details under the same disciplinary rule and the same guards as any CC, the only difference being, that generally these Aussenkommando's did not hold so many pris. as the main camps and that they were administratively responsible to the same. When such a work detail grew out of proportions it was eventually transformed into a main CC, as is the case with the Aussenkdo. Dora of Buchenwald, or vice versa, an independent CC was reduced to being only an Aussenkdo. of another CC as is the case of the CC Niederhagen, which became the Aussenkdo. Wevelsburg of Buchenwald.

The industries within or not too far away from the main camp were supplied with manpower by the main camp itself. The prisoners working in these plants had to be present at the morning and the evening roll call. If there was any reason for missing, the administrative office set up an "Aussenkdo," for the prisoners out on the special task not admitting them to appear on the roll call.

In Buchenwald, the vicinity of Weimar, ^{was} a special reason of having many such very temporary Aussenkommando's after air raids or other emergency cases, groups of prisoners went to work without being able to return for appeal, and on each occasion a separate "Aussenkommando" has been established for them administratively for that special occasion. In this manner, in Weimar only Gustloffwerke I and the household of the "Reichstatthalter" have been permanent Aussenkommando's. In the invoices of manpower furnished, the following institutions or enterprises do occur more often, without any or with mentioning only for few days on the daily strength reports :

Deutsche Ausruestungswerke GmbH Weimar-Buchenwald, abbreviation: DAW, over 1000 pris.

Bischoff, Wilhelm, Weimar, for Kdo. "Luftschutzbauten" - Kdo. of airraid shelter construction, about 15 prisoners.

Concentration camp "Auschwitz", begun at the beginning of 1940 by establishing a concentration camp in the suburb Zasole of Oswiecim, in some premises of the Polish Tobacco Monopoly and on the adjacent grounds, this camp grew gradually into a complex comprising the whole suburb Zasole and 10 more villages situated between the river Wisla-Vistula and the village Sola (PWCB)

In the autumn of 1941, the construction of an extermination camp, was started in the moor of Brzezinka - Birkenau.

On 10.7.42, the establishment of a women's section in Auschwitz was announced.

On 6.11.43 an order was issued by the RSHA by which all Jewish prisoners in the CC's in Germany had to be transferred to Auschwitz and the "Kriegsgefangenenlager Lublin" (Photocopies of the Gestapo acts in Duesseldorf).

Auschwitz I	- Stammlager in Oswiecim - Auschwitz
Auschwitz II	- in Brzezinka - Birkenau and
Auschwitz III	- Aussenlager, i.e. the administrative unit for the work details. (PWCB)

On 25.11.44, Birkenau was again united with the "Stammlager" and the Kdo. in Monowitz became Auschwitz-III.

About 400000 prisoners were registered during the existence of the CC; the prisoners who went to the extermination camp were not registered and are not comprised in this number; the main camp was liberated on 27.1.45

The registered prisoners had to work either in the Auschwitz complex or they were distributed over the so called "Aussenkommando's" - work details (PABB), and Auschwitz supplied the manpower of slave labour to the industry lying in the territory covering the part of the former Sudetengau East of Friedland, the part of the former Oberschlesien South of the line Neustadt i.O. - Blechhammer, and the part of Poland lying South of the line Stara Kuznica - Trzebinia/Krak.

BAUBRIGADE I

CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen, established on 24.10.42 with 1000 pris., for the purpose of repairing the damages caused by air raids, this brigade was first stationed at Duesseldorf (Netherlands Red Cross), Steffeler Kapellenweg (ENEB) and Duisburg-Meiderich.

In Febr. 1943, both parts of the brigade were transferred to the channel island Alderney, for work on fortification (Netherlands Red Cross).

CC Kdo. of Neuengamme. In May 43 (Former inmate), the prisoners received Neuengamme numbers of the series 16000 - 17000; work on fortifications continued under very hard circumstances.

Around 22.6.44, Alderney was evacuated to Sollstedt, Germany, following the route: Alderney - Guernsey island - Jersey island - St. Malo - Rennes - Nantes - Tours - Nevers - Chalon s.S. - Dijon - Landres - Epinal - Toul - Nancy - Metz - Sedan - Namur - Bruxelles - Kortemark - Sollstedt, where the prisoners arrived at the beginning of Oct. 44. In Toul, a trial of escape resulted in the massacre of 40 pris. by the SS guards.

On Sept. 22nd, the Kdo was turned over administratively to CC Buchenwald (Netherlands Red Cross).

CC Kdo. of Buchenwald, starting 22.9.44 with 570 pris., prisoners numbers of the series 88000, until 28.10.44, when they were transferred administratively to CC Dora.

CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, located in Sollstedt, prisoners' numbers of the series 100000, until 10.12.44, when the Kdo was transferred administratively to Sachsenhausen (Netherlands Red Cross).

CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen, starting 10.12.44, with old Sachsenhausen numbers, working in Sollstedt until beginning of April, 45, when the Kdo was evacuated to Steyr via Gruenewald - Wittenberg - Berlin - Kladrau - Pilsen - Karowitz - Budweis - Maut- hausen - Steyr.
Liberated in Steyr, on May 5th 45 (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE II

CC Kdo. of Neuengamme: first mentioned on 13.2.42 (trf. of 250 pris. from Baubrigade 3 to Bremen), 300 pris. of this brigade were employed in Osnebrueck, and 700 pris. at Bremen. Towards the end of 1943, both details and a reinforcement of 1000 prisoners were sent to Hamburg. In April 44, the brigade was transferred to Sachsenhausen.

CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen, starting mid Apr. 44, and split into three details, viz., Sachsenhausen, Friedrich Kreis Ufer in the former Luer factory, and Berlin-Lichterfelde. The prisoners of all three details received numbers of the series 77000 - 78000.

Berlin-Lichterfelde was soon closed, the prisoners being transferred to Friedrich Kraus Ufer; in Oct. 44, this Kdo was reinforced and split into two details: Baubrigade 2a remained in its old place, and Baubrigade 2b went to Mueggelheim. A Baubrigade 2c seems to have worked in Ferch.

On 25.2.1945, 500 pris. have been gathered from the details 2a, 2b and 2c and an "Eisenbahnbaukommando" was established, which went to Nuernberg, Regensburg, Landshut and Ahraun. (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE III

CC Kdo. of Buchenwald. First mentioned on 13.2.42 in Koeln-Deutz, the Kdo had an average of 300 pris. until Dec. 42, when a transport of 300 new pris. helped to establish the detail in Duisburg (Trf. lists of Baubrigade 3) - Kuhlenwald, Diakonastalt (ENWB).

After Baubrigade I left Duesseldorf, Baubrigade 3 established there the "Sprengkdo Kalkum" on 28.5.43 with 50 pris., the "Sprengkdo Dortmund" in Dortmund on 31.5.43 with 40 pris., the "Schuttverwertung Essen" in summer 1943 with 60 pris and the "Napolit Bensberg" with 10 pris. (Trf. lists of Baubrigade 3) and the total strength of the details in Koeln, Dortmund, Essen, Duisburg and Bensberg by this time had reached 1300 pris. (Netherlands Red Cross) - Abbreviations for the Duisburg Kdo: Du (Buchenwald entry register).

In May 44, the brigade began to move to the environments of Wieda, where the new headquarters were set up; the move was completed around June 44. July 20th, the brigade had the following details :

Nuexei Bahnbau	300 pris.	- sometimes misspelled into Nixei,
Osterhagen	300	"
Maackenrode	150	"
Wieda	250	"

(Baubrigade 3 Trf. books). The office address of the administration has been: "SS Baubrigade 3, Walkenried-Wolfleben, Senderinspektion II, B 13 fuer 3, SS Baubrigade Wolfleben - Harz, Gut Bischofsrode". (Buchenwald invoices, containing misspellings: Wolfleben is the wrong spelling for Woffleben, and Bischofsrode is a wrong spelling for Bischoffrode). The average strength of the Baubrigade remained 1000 pris. until 28.10.44, when it was transferred administratively to CC Dora (Buchenwald invoices, affidavit on transfer). Abbreviation: Wieda - III (Buchenwald entry register).

CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, the brigade kept its assignment and headquarters at Walkenried until liberation (US War Crimes Commission).

BAUBRIGADE IV

CC Kdo. of Buchenwald. Established in Aug. 43, the brigade went to Wuppertal (Netherlands Red Cross), Koenigshoerweg 7 (ENWB) and counted 500 pris.

In May 44, the brigade moved to Ellrich-Harz (Netherlands Red Cross), where the total of prisoners was raised to 800 pris. and in Sept., to 1400 pris. (Buchenwald invoices). On 28.10.44, the brigade was transferred administratively to CC Dora with 826 pris. (Affidavit on transfer).

CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, it had a detail working at Guenzerode (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE V - West.

- CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen, 785 men on 2.1.43 (Sachsenhausen daily strength reports).
- CC Kdo. of Neuengamme, on 5.3.44, 525 pris. were transferred from CC Neuengamme "with old and new Buchenwald numbers" (original transfer list).
- CC Kdo. of Buchenwald, address: SS Baubrigade V - West ueber Keeln (Buchenwald address book), the brigade was working in the German occupied countries of Western Europe, also near Hesdin in the Pas de Calais. Here the Baubrigade was employed on digging up unexploded bombs, cleaning up bombed towns and building fortifications. A group of 300 pris. was lent to a Pionier Bn. engaged on building an underground assembly place for bombs. In Aug. 44, this group was evacuated as the last work detail to go to Germany, via the base camp at DOUL'LENS towards Buchenwald; in Cambrai they had an air attack (former prisoner of the Baubrigade). It was not allowed to have prisoners coming from these same countries (Transfer list on 10.4.44). In May - August 44, this Baubrigade was withdrawn from the West and established under the address: "SS Baubrigade 5, W.L. Sonderst. Schmalschlaeger" with 300 pris. in June - Aug. 44. In Sept. 44, the strength was raised to 1500 pris. under the address: "SS Baubrigade 5, Sonderinspektion Halle II, Bauleitung K VI, Architekt W.Fricke, Kostenstelle B 17, Halle/Saale, SS Fuehrungsstab B 15, Halle/Saale" (Buchenwald invoices).

On 28.10.44, it was transferred administratively to CC Dora (Affidavit on transfer).

CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, with 648 pris.

BAUBRIGADE VI

- CC Kdo. of Buchenwald, established in summer 44 as Eisenbahnbau- brigade I - Baubrigade VI, this brigade was transferred to CC Dora on 28.10.44 (Affidavit on transfer).
- CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, with 514 pris. On 3.4.45, the brigade arrived at Plattling on their way from Chemnitz, and continued railway repair work in Ittling, where it was liberated on 4.5.45 (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE 7 - Eisenbahnbaubrigade 2

CC Kdo. of Buchenwald.

CC Kdo. of Dora, starting 28.10.44, with 498 pris. (Affidavit on transfer).

BAUBRIGADE 9

CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen, established around the end of Nov. 44, of 500 pris., this Baubrigade was employed in railway repair work in Stuttgart until the end of Dec. Work was continued in Offenburg near Strassburg until end of Febr. 45, then the brigade moved to Darmstadt, and half an hour before the allied troops entered Darmstadt, via Frankfurt/H., Wuerzburg, Nuernberg, Regensburg, Pilsen, Salzburg, and Linz, to Ebensee (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE 11 - Eisenbahnbaukommando.

CC Kdo. of Neuengamme. Established around 15.2.45, the Kdo with 500 pris. moved to Soest for repairing the railroads. After an air raid on 20.2., which cost 50 casualties and ruined their train, the prisoners were billeted in Sassendorf near Soest. Upon the approach of the allied armies, part of the Kdo was moved to Sachsenhausen, part of it to Ebensee, and part of it remained in the Sassendorf hospital (Netherlands Red Cross).

BAUBRIGADE 8 or 10 - Eisenbahnbaubrigade.

CC Kdo. of ? , established in Auschwitz in the middle of Sept. 44, this Kdo was moved to Wuerttemberg and worked in :

Stuttgart	700 pris.,	Oct.44 - Febr.45,
Karlsruhe	500 "	(former member),
Pforzheim	(BNTB)
Neusatz	(BNTB).

Remark: The sources are contradicting each other as regards the Eisenbahnbaubrigade in Wuerttemberg, therefore the existence of both Eisenbahnbrigaden 9, established in Sachsenhausen, and Eisenbahnbaubrigade 8 or 10 (these numbers are merely a conjecture of missing numbers), established in Auschwitz, was accepted. According to the sources, two details must have been working in Stuttgart: one of the brigade 9, until the end of Dec. 44 (Netherlands Red Cross), and one of brigade 8 or 10, until Febr. 45 (former member).

BAUBRIGADE 12 - Eisenbahnbaubrigade.

CC Kdo. of Sachsenhausen. Established towards the end of Dec. 44, this Baubrigade first worked at Kamp s.Rhein, then at Bad Kreuznach, where they buried their dead in the village of Bretzenheim; by the end of Febr. 45, in Bad Nauheim until end of March, then in Dresden and finally they arrived at Ebensee (Netherlands Red Cross).

Some prisoners of this Baubrigade, who are buried in Kamp s.Their, originally belonged to the CC Neuengamme (Relève au Chantiers de Fosses Communes, by the Comm. Belge au Repatriement, Bruxelles).

"NORD", Kdo. of Papenburg Norway

Established in 1942, this Kdo was then only supplied with manpower by the "Strafgefängenenlager" Papenburg and had 2000 pris., distributed over the following localities in Norway :

Alte Fjord	Alterfjord	I 17/ 4846

Nearly 50 of the pris. perished (The Emsland case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

X. Kdo. of Papenburg France

Established towards the end of 1943, this Kdo. was supplied with manpower only from the "Strafgefängenenlager" Papenburg. Two main groups worked in France.

From Oct. 43, one group was in Calais, Lettow-Vorbeck-barracks, with Kdos in Seleux and Pihen, a total of 1000 men. In March or Apr. 1944, the Kdo was moved to Samer, then in May 44 to Arras and in Sept. 44, to Lendringsen, Germany.

From Jan. to April 44, the other group of 700 pris. worked in Berck Plage, was moved to Watten in May, and to Cambrai in June 44. In Sept. 44, this Kdo. too, returned to Lendringsen, Germany. (The Emsland Case, Brit. War Crimes Group).

Here, the prisoners stayed in Lendringsen, whereas the administration was billeted in the Sicherungsanstalt in Werl (BWB connecting Werl with Lendringsen).
